ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
2.2 A listed entity should disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve its membership.	No	The Board strives to ensure that it is comprised of Directors with a blend of skills, experience and attributes appropriate to the Company and its business. The principal criterion for the appointment of new Directors is their ability to add value to the Company and its business. In light of this, it has not been deemed necessary to create a formal document outlining the particular skills of the existing Board.
2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	No N/A Yes	The Board ensures that each Director is not able to be significantly adversely influenced by the operations of the Company by ensuring a diverse range of backgrounds and ongoing involvement in other businesses which are not the Company. Information with respect to potential issues of independence may be disclosed to the market but no formal policy exists to ensure such disclosure. The length of service of each Director is published in the Company's Annual Report.
2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	For the reporting period, a majority of the Board was not independent. However, the Company considers that the Board is appropriately structured given the extensive knowledge of each of the directors regarding the Company and its business and their substantial experience and recognition in the mining industry and other industries relevant to the Company's operations. For these reasons, and the stage of the development of the Company, the Company takes the view that it is in the best interests of members that the current Directors, with their extensive background and experience, be Directors of the Board.
2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	No	The Company does not have a CEO, however, the equivalent function is shared by Messrs Hugh Warner and Harry Greaves. Mr Warner is also the Company's Executive Chairman. Despite this, the Board considers Mr Warner's current role as essential to the success of the Company at this stage of its development.

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	The Company does have a CFO and a declaration in this form has been prepared. The Company does not have a CEO.
4.3 A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Yes	An external auditor will be present at the AGM and be available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.
5 Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1 A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure requirements under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	No	Due to the current stage of development of the Company, there are no written policies in place. The Company is however committed to providing relevant up-to-date information to its shareholders and the broader investment community in accordance with the continuous disclosure requirements under the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act. The Board has designated the Company Secretary as the person responsible for overseeing and coordinating disclosure of information to the ASX and shareholders as well as providing guidance to Directors and employees on disclosure requirements and procedures. As the Company develops, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary, adopt a formal continuous disclosure policy.
6 Respect the rights of security holders
6.1 A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Yes	The Company's information is provided on its website www.prospectresources.com.au .
6.2 A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	No	The Company has no formal investor relations program in place, but ensures that all material information is conveyed to its investors so as to facilitate communication.
6.3 A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Yes	Although the Company does not have a formal communications policy in place, all material matters will be disclosed to the market in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules.
